

Rediscovering the Parables of Jesus

A Seminar by Bishop Emeritus Dr Robert Solomon

A third of the recorded teachings of Jesus is in the form of parables. The challenge for Christians today, whether they are reading the parables for their personal devotions or teaching them in church, is to know how to interpret these stories that Jesus told. This seminar will describe how Christians in the past have interpreted the parables and suggest how we can do so today. Three parables will be discussed to show how the parables can be interpreted and applied.
